

WHAT IS THE SODAK SHRM STATE COUNCIL...

And What Does SoDak SHRM Do?

SoDak SHRM State Council?

Vision

To be the premier organization in South Dakota for the professional development and advancement of Human Resources.

Mission

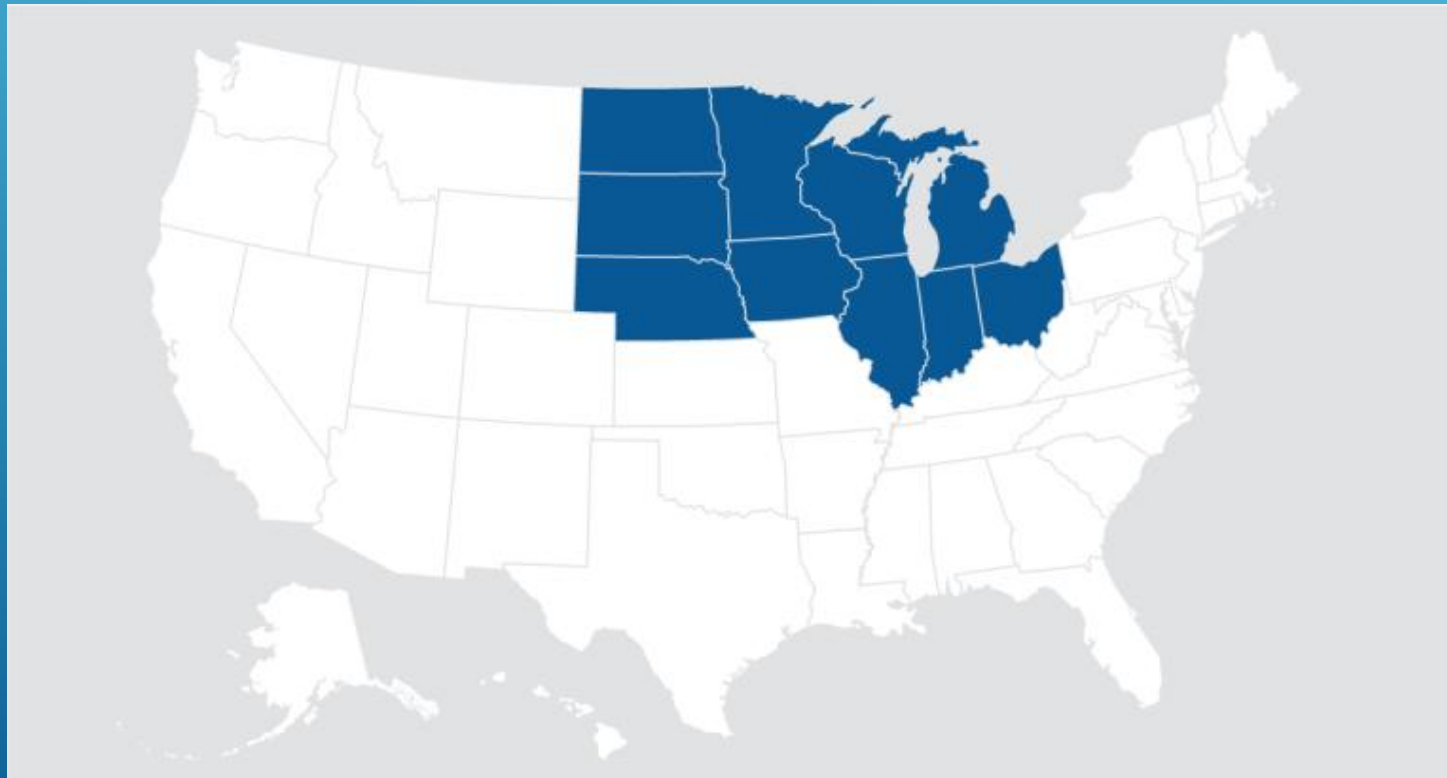

Lead Human Resources in South Dakota through:

*Human Resource expertise
Advocacy
Professional support
Educational Opportunities
Networking*

What is the SoDak SHRM State Council?

Like all state councils, the SoDak SHRM State Council is an autonomous entity that operates as an affiliate of SHRM. Each state council conducts the affairs of a nonprofit organization under the general guidance of SHRM. The SoDak SHRM State Council is responsible directly to the North Central Region

What is the SoDak SHRM State Council's role ?

- To provide a forum for chapters to discuss common issues, problems, concerns and to share ideas and successes;
- To facilitate information from chapters and the state council to the area and national boards and from the area and national boards to the state council and chapters;

What is the SoDak SHRM State Council's role?

- To represent SHRM by visiting and communicating with chapters and promoting and sharing with members the services and benefits offered by SHRM;
- To assess the needs of members and chapters, and meeting those needs by securing and /or providing information; To adopt programs that will promote the progress, visibility, and welfare of SHRM and its members in the human resource profession; and coordinate state and national legislative affairs.

SoDak SHRM has three strategic objectives:

- ✓ Branding
- ✓ Volunteers
- ✓ Partnerships
